The two are interlinked, but customers can be loyal to your brand without being advocates (although the reverse can't really be true). A brand loyalist is someone who is personally loyal to your brand, but doesn't engage in promoting you to others. They're important, not only because they generate revenue, but because they possess the potential to become advocates.

In developing economies and particularly in rural areas, many activities that would be classified in the developed world as financial are not monetized: that is, money is not used to carry them out. This is often the case when people need the services money can provide but do not have dispensable funds required for those services, forcing them to revert to other means of acquiring them.
